

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IS ENDED

1910 GATHERING WAS BEST ON RECORD

990 Delegates Registered and Hundreds of Others Were Present

SANTA ANA ENTERTAINED HER VISITORS ROYALLY

Local Committees Were Efficient—Everybody Helped and Everybody Satisfied

The twenty-first annual convention of the Southern California Sunday School Association closed last night at the First Methodist church after a successful three days' session. This is said to have been one of the best of these conventions, and has given an impetus and uplift to the Sunday school work in Santa Ana that will make a big mark on the future. Every delegate and visitor present will go home with new ideas and methods. The visit of the national workers, Marion Lawrence of Chicago and W. N. Hartshorn of Boston, lent unusual interest to the big meeting. The many splendid state workers also created enthusiasm, and the convention moved along with a rush and vim that made its work vastly worth while.

Santa Ana was honored in the selection of one of her popular pastors, Rev. Chas. H. Seecombe of the First Congregational church, as the new president of the association, and on the last day he presided over the meetings. The resignation of Hugh C. Gibson as association secretary, was a real blow, but Mr. Gibson will act on the directorate. The delegates and visitors were entertained hospitably in this city, 560 homes being thrown open to the strangers. Many of the delegates went back and forth to their homes in Los Angeles and near-by towns. 990 delegates were registered during the convention. Hundreds of visitors were present besides the delegates of whom no account was kept. The registration committee did yeoman work. All the committees, with H. G. Dean as general chairman and Mrs. Calland as secretary, performed their work in a most efficient way, and were largely responsible for the success of the convention. The following were the local committees and their chairmen:

Entertainment, Mrs. W. M. Smart; reception, Harry Lewis; registration, Mrs. Lea Warren; decoration, Mrs. H. Clay Kellogg; music, Mrs. Ella Fyfe; parade, L. M. Edwards; messenger, Mrs. W. D. Baker; decoration, H. G. Dean; exhibits, Rev. J. H. Scott; finance, J. G. Quick. Mrs. Swanner had charge of the press work, including reporting.

The business men responded generously to all demands and the M. & M. extended courtesies. The Pacific Telephone Company installed a telephone at headquarters and gave good service. The Ebell ladies established dining halls and furnished excellent meals at reasonable prices. In fact, Santa Ana rose to the occasion nobly, and lacked but one thing—a convention hall. Its need was very forcibly demonstrated during this big convention and was painfully realized by Santa Ana people and hundreds of others who were compelled to stand up at every session in order to get the benefits of the convention. Many outsiders returned to their homes, unable to get in either of the churches used for the big meetings.

Friday Afternoon

Convention church was again crowded beyond its greatest capacity at Friday afternoon's session, which was opened with a beautiful song service. Solos were sung by Messrs. Daniels, Todd and Stout, which thrilled the audience and fired them with

Woman Suspected To Be Mrs. Crippen At Alexis, Alberta

ALEXIS, Alberta, Nov. 12.—Excitement has been caused here by a rumor that a woman who arrived here on Wednesday may be Belle Elmore Crippen, for whose supposed murder Dr. Hawley Crippen is under sentence to hang in London.

The woman went from the railway station to the stable where she ordered a conveyance. When she heard the hostler remark, "I guess they've got Crippen," she fainted. Upon recovery she demanded to see the papers telling the murder story. She again fainted.

She resembles the descriptions of the woman alleged to be Mrs. Crippen who has been reported as hiding in Chicago. She is under police surveillance and may be arrested tonight.

WHO WILL BE THE DEPUTIES?

Smithwick and Jernigan Probably Go With Ruddock, Koepsel With West

On Jan. 1, 1911, when the courthouse starts in on a new administration, three officers not now in the courthouse will take office, L. A. West as district attorney, C. E. Ruddock as sheriff, and J. L. McBride as surveyor. With J. C. Joplin, treasurer, the only Democrat in office, there will be fewer Democrats in the courthouse than ever before in the history of the county.

Two of the new officers will carry with them one or more deputies. Just who those deputies will be has not been announced but it is currently reported and generally understood that Constable Sid Smithwick of Santa Ana, and City Marshal Samuel Jernigan of Orange will go in as deputies under Ruddock, and that Attorney A. E. Koepsel of Santa Ana will in all probability be named as deputy district attorney.

The official count will be made by the Board of Supervisors on Monday. There seems to be no likelihood of any change in the vote as shown by the unofficial returns.

The highest vote received by any of those running for county office was received by W. B. Williams. Williams for county clerk got 5483; J. C. Lamb for tax collector, 5382; G. E. Peters for recorder, 5311; J. L. McBride for surveyor, 5182. These men all had Republican and Democratic nominations, and McBride in addition had the Prohibition nomination.

DOLLIVER'S PLACE HAS BEEN FILLED

Gov. Carroll Appoints Editor Young to Complete Unexpired Term

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 12.—Governor Carroll today appointed Lafayette Young, editor of the Des Moines Capital, to succeed the late Senator Dolliver.

It is understood Young will not seek election by the legislature at the expiration of Dolliver's term. It is rumored that Gov. Carroll will then try for the senatorial toga.

Young's appointment means a political war in Iowa. The legislature is equally divided between the progressives, standpatters and Democrats. The report that Gov. Carroll will be a senatorial candidate has not yet been confirmed.

Political Resume And Legislative Forecast

Four years ago the first serious organized effort to take the control of the government of California from the political bureau of the Southern Pacific railroad was begun. Those loyal real Republicans who initiated that movement were scoffed at for their pains. The railroad had so long been in control, its tentacles were so firmly fastened in every governmental department, state, county and municipal, that it was generally considered invincible. It was a big job to attempt to smash the machine of the interests, but it has been accomplished. Like all great undertakings that are right in principle, this movement in California needed a man to lead it to victory, and that great leader was found in Hiram W. Johnson. Without a man of his calibre, ability, and unselfish devotion to the cause, we could not have won; but we have succeeded, and it is a great day for California. It is not altogether a victory for the Republican party; it is equally the victory of progressive Americanism. It transcends all party lines, because the issue that was made was not a party issue at all. It was the allied special interests on one side against the people on the other, and the people won.

The next legislature will be the best legislature ever assembled in the state of California; and with Governor Johnson in the state capitol, and Lieutenant Governor Wallace presiding over the State Senate and appointing the Senate committees, unquestionably the pledges of the party platform will be redeemed, and more progressive, constructive legislation enacted than California has been given for a generation.

Our campaign was conducted on principle and on absolutely clean lines. We did not barter, or pledge, or compromise in any manner. No candidate elected on the Republican ticket is in any way obligated except to the people themselves.

To the thousands of loyal citizens throughout the state who gave so generously of their time and money in this campaign, we extend our sincere thanks and appreciation; and to the loyal Republican and Independent press of the state, without whose aid the victory could not have been won, we feel under still greater obligations.

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
M. LISSNER, Chairman.

DESPERADO GETS THIRTEEN YEARS IN SAN QUENTIN

Alejo Macias, ex-convict, forger, jail-breaker and all-around bad hombre, today received a sentence of thirteen years in San Quentin. Yesterday afternoon he decided to plead guilty. Once the decision was reached, procedure could not be rushed too fast to suit him. This morning his preliminary examination was held, information charging forgery was filed in the superior court, Macias pleaded guilty and before 11 o'clock Judge West passed sentence. Tomorrow morning Deputy Sheriff George Wilson and James Ott will start for San Quentin, taking with them two men under sentence, Macias and Martin Jaurez, who yesterday was given a three-year sentence for the murder of Jose Garcia at West Anaheim.

Macias yesterday stated to Jailer Lacy that in the flight, Macias hid Lacy's rifle stolen from the jail in an orange tree on J. A. Maag's place. The jailer took Macias from his cell, and was going to go to the place to hunt for the rifle. Not till then did Macias admit that he had not told the truth about the rifle. He said the gun is now in Mexico. Macias said he was unable to get ammunition for it.

Macias was returned to his cell. A half hour later he called for the jailer, and said he wanted to plead guilty at once. Deputy District Attorney Finley said the preliminary could be held today, and the plea entered Monday. Macias objected. He said he wanted the whole thing done up today. His wishes were complied with.

Macias was taken before Justice Smithwick at 9 o'clock this morning by Deputy Sheriff Wilson, who brought the prisoner over from jail in handcuffs.

Two witnesses were examined by District Attorney Davis. Ray B. Stedman, salesman at Turner's Shoe Store, testified that on Aug. 22 Macias came into the store and got a pair of shoes worth $3.50, and gave a $30 check on the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank of Santa Ana, signed, W. U. Lamb, and made out to Francisco Cornedo. The man said his name was Cornedo. After inquiry about Lamb, Macias answering the questions well, Stedman accepted the check and gave Macias the shoes and $26.50 in change. The bank returned the check. Stedman testified that there is no W. U. Lamb.

N. A. Beals, teller at the bank, stated that the check came to the bank. No W. U. Lamb had an account there, and Beals was convinced on investigation that the names Lamo and Cornedo were fictitious.

Macias had no questions to ask and was held to answer.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Macias was before Judge West.

"I am guilty," he said. He said he was born at Riverside and was raised at El Modena. He said that he served a term in prison for stealing a bicycle in Los Angeles when he was 18 years old.

"Tell me about this break from jail," said the judge.

"Well, Sainz said 'Let's go,' and I said 'all right, so we don't hurt anybody.'"

"You took guns from the jail," said the judge. "You evidently intended to shoot if anyone stopped you."

"Sainz took the guns," declared the prisoner.

Sheriff Lacy stated that it was Macias who went into the living-room and brought out the rifles and revolver.

"There is mighty little in this case by which you could expect sympathy. You have served time, you were arrested for forgery, you assaulted a police officer in a jail-break and you armed yourself to resist capture. You can't expect leniency. The maximum penalty for this offense is fourteen years. I shall order that you be confined in the penitentiary at San Quentin for a term of thirteen years."

Macias showed no change of feature. He picked up his hat, followed Deputy Sheriff Wilson to the courtroom door, where the handcuffs were placed on him, and he was taken back to jail.

About four years ago Macias attacked his mother-in-law, Mrs. Cardenas, at El Modena, and slashed her across the cheek, inflicting a cut that required eleven stitches to close. He left the country, and had returned but a short time before he passed a $30 fictitious check at Turner's Shoe Store here, and another bad check for $30 at Hall & Waus saloon at Anaheim.

QUIET SEEMS TO PREVAIL IN MEXICO TO DAY

Rurales in Mexico City Have Made No Arrests For 24 Hours Past

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING IS HIGHEST IN JALISCO

Picked-up Wireless Message Indicates Rodriguez Was American Citizen

EL PASO, Nov. 12.—Although it is feared that anti-American rioting may break out in the state of Jalisco, where feeling against the Americans is strong, the situation through Mexico is normal today. Dispatches from Mexico City state that quiet has been restored. The rurales patrolling the streets have little to do, and have made no arrests for the last twenty-four hours.

For a safeguard the authorities have prohibited the usual Sunday bull fight to keep the mobs from gathering. The Mexican consul at Eagle Pass near the border, today began an official investigation of the lynching of Antonio Rodriguez, and the Texas authorities are conducting an independent investigation.

WIRELESS INTERCEPTED AT TOPEKA, KANSAS

FT. LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Nov. 12.—A message referring to the anti-American riots in Mexico was picked up by the Federal wireless station here today. Operators are unable to tell where the message was sent from but declared their belief that it is an actual communication and not a hoax similar to those often perpetrated by amateur operators. The message read:

"Editors of incendiary papers will be arrested. Embassy is vigorously protected. I am informed on excellent authority that Antonio Rodriguez was born in New Mexico and is an American citizen."

The officials here believe the message was sent by Secretary of State Knox to President Taft, who is at sea enroute to Panama.

REASSURING MESSAGE FROM NEWSPAPERMAN

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—Paul Hudson, president of the Herald Publishing Company, telegraphed his mother today: "All quiet. Both governments are uniting in suppressing riots. Lateral building somewhat damaged. No more danger."

It is believed the original message contained other news, but was censored.

FIREBUG SET FIRE TO SCHOOL HOUSE IN CHULA VISTA

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 12.—Authorities throughout the county are searching for the firebug who fired the Chula Vista school this morning.

The police believe that the same man who caused a score of fires in San Diego six months ago is again active. It is probable a reward will be offered for his capture.

TIMES GRAND JURY OFF UNTIL TUESDAY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—The special grand jury investigating the Times explosion adjourned until Tuesday. It is reported additional witnesses will be summoned to appear then.

LOCAL MEN HAVE APPLIED FOR NATIONAL BANK CHARTER

A new bank is being organized in Santa Ana. It is to be known as the Citizens' National Bank, and it will be located at the southwest corner of Broadway and West Fourth streets in the property purchased this week from the Gilman estate, the deed being made to G. E. Shriver, trustee.

Those signing the petition, which goes to Washington, D. C., asking for a charter as a national bank, are G. E. Shriver, V. E. Blodgett, J. W. T.

Anxiously Await Word As to Act

Those who are interested in the proposed bonding of Orange county for good roads are anxiously awaiting to hear whether or not the State Highway Act, appropriating $18,000,000 for goods roads to be built in this state, carried.

It may not be known for several days what the result on the highway act was. Orange county's Highway Commission has done its work, and is ready to file its final report. The questions being asked are: If the state bonds carried, what will be the effect on the county bonds? Will it mean dropping the county project entirely?

PRINCETON WINS FROM YALE WITH SCORE OF 5 TO 3

PRINCETON, Nov. 12.—Yale defeated Princeton in the annual football game this afternoon, with a score of five to three. Princeton's score was the result of a place kick by Ballou, in the first quarter of play. Within an hour after a snow storm, the Princeton-Yale game began under bitter cold weather. Princeton was an overwhelming favorite with the bettors. Thirty thousand people were in the stands when Ballou kicked off for Princeton. After an early advantage in Yale's favor, Princeton rushed the ball to the twenty-yard line, where Ballou of Princeton, kicked a field goal. The score was Princeton 3, Yale 0.

RACING RESUMED AT EMERYVILLE

Ninety Day Season Open—Anti-Race Track People Will Begin Activity

EMERYVILLE, Nov. 12.—Racing was resumed today when the Emeryville track opened for a ninety-day season. Despite the counter football game attraction at Berkeley, ten thousand people filled the grandstand. Oral betting was in vogue.

It is rumored the Anti-Race Track League is planning an active campaign to end the race track activities. A petition to the governor and the legislature to amend the anti-betting law is reported to be under consideration.

BRUCE-BROWN IS WINNER OF GREAT GRAND PRIX RACE

SAVANNAH, Nov. 12.—David Bruce-Brown in a Benz car won the Grand Prix race this afternoon. Hemery in a Benz was second.

Bruce-Brown's time was five hours and fifty-three minutes this afternoon. Hemery in a hundred thousand people saw the race.

TOLSTOI HAS VANISHED OUT OF SIGHT

Great Russian Disappears Upon Announcing Seclusion For Rest of Life

COUNTLESS ATTEMPTED SUICIDE THROUGH GRIEF

Mystery Excites Europe—Fear Felt for Safety of Aged and Invalid Writer

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Distracted because of the disappearance of Count Leo Tolstoy, the great Russian's family organized a searching party today, according to Moscow dispatches. Several individual attempts have been made to find Tolstoy, who disappeared last night stating he intended to spend his remaining days in seclusion. These failed.

A dispatch by Reuters Agency asserts that Countess Tolstoy has twice attempted suicide through grief over her husband's previous disappearance on October 10th.

Tolstoy's disappearance is the biggest news item of the day throughout Europe, according to scores of press dispatches. The papers here devote enormous space to the mystery.

On account of the Count's age and failing health it is feared the exposure will have fatal effects unless he has found friendly shelter.

"I cannot continue to live surrounded by luxury. Like many other old men I am going to retire from the world. I contemplate a life of solitude and ask you not to seek my place of sojourn or come to it if discovered. I beg forgiveness for any grief I may cause."

Many believe the novelist's mind is unbalanced. There is no clue yet as to his whereabouts.

THOUSANDS SAW FOOTBALL GAME

California-Stanford Game Was Magnet for Vast Crowds From About Bay

BERKELEY, Nov. 12.—California and Stanford universities met this afternoon on the California field in the twentieth intercollegiate football game. For two days Berkeley has been crowded with football enthusiasts. The early boats today carried an advance guard of San Francisco partisans. Special ferries from San Francisco and special trains from interior points poured hundreds into the campus this morning. Trainers announced that both teams were in fair condition.

How It Seemed This Morning
A temporary gloom had been cast over the California ranks by Coach Schaeffer's announcement this morning that Elliott, the star California back, would probably be unable to play on account of an injured knee. If Elliott should be held out, it was announced that he would be replaced by Evans of Pomona.

It appeared this morning as if the field would be slightly heavy as a result of the recent rain, although it has been covered by tarpaulins and sawdust for several days.

Jordan, the California giant, and the most powerful man on either team, was suffering from water on the knee and it was thought he might not last through the game. Partridge of Stanford arrived at the campus on crutches but took his place when the whistle blew. The lineup:

California — Forward, Blodger, Pauly, Markwart, Ashley, Hardy, Jordan, Swartz; half, Morris; five-eighths, Stroud and Evans; three-quarters, Heart, Allen and Watts; fullback, Twiggins, captain.

Stanford — Forward, Cheda, Arroll, Minturn, Olmstead, Captain Dole, Partridge, Frank, Sundell; half, Erb; five-eighths, Mitchell and Meyler; three-quarters, Thoburn, Harrigan and Reeves; fullback, Brown.

Referee, Jenkinson of Vancouver. Touch judges, Lanagan and Bell. Timers judges, Everett Brown and David Brown.

BERRYDALE, Nov. 12.—Now that the weary strain of the campaign is over we can employ our leisure hours to no better purpose than in making apologies for the ugly things we said during the campaign. Of course we were a little angry then and not quite responsible for what we did and said. As during all former elections, the campaign liar was out peddling his goods, but they were handled with less recklessness than usual, sort of handed around to the ones "I can trust," and, as in former campaigns, they were more to the interest of the candidate they were supposed to injure, than good to the ones who circulated them. Aside from a few ill-advised comments, the newspapers of Orange county treated all candidates with uniform kindness and fairness. Like going to the dentist with an aching tooth, or to "her" father for the important answer, we are glad it is over with.

"Uncle Hank" Hending lost an old keepsake yesterday, in the person of an old horse he has had on the ranch for nearly 20 years.

Silas Johnson dropped in on us yesterday just long enough to say "Hello," and was off to Phoenix, Ariz., where his wife went some few weeks ago to take up her duties as teacher on the reservation. The Johnsons left here a year ago for the Klamath Indian agency, where they expected to find an earthly paradise. Instead, Silas says the climate up there beats hades itself. He says it has frosted every week since they were there, and the only opportunity he had to see anything green was to look in the glass.

What other country on earth besides Orange county will produce two good paying crops in a season, year after year, without becoming exhausted?

Driving along the road I read a sign saying, "These 2 achers for sale. Either one or two at the same price." Under ordinary circumstances a man would take the greater number "at the same price," but in this case, one "acher" would be preferable to two.

I lost a horse this afternoon from a severe case of spasmodic colic. The animal was worth $150.

I stopped at a house away out in the wilds between El Monte and Monrovia, and asked the wee bit of humanity who answered my call: "Who lives here?" She seemed to hesitate for a moment, with a far away look, and then answered, "I Malone." I said, "That's too bad, and in this lonesome out of the way place. My sympathies are with you, for I, too, am left alone a good deal." Pointing out toward a cornfield she said: "My husband is out there at work; his name is Isaac Malone, and if—" but before she could complete the sentence I was in the rig driving like mad.

Obituary

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha Witmer was held from the family residence on Orange avenue, Saturday, Nov. 5th, and amid a profusion of beautiful flowers her body was laid away to rest.

As these flowers gave forth their fragrance more abundantly as they faded, so the influence of her life went out more sweetly and fully upon those who ministered to her as the days of her life drew to a close.

Mrs. Martha J. Witmer was born at Oxford, Pennsylvania, March 10, 1831. She spent her early life in Lancaster county, Pa., and was educated at the Mount Joy Seminary. She lived in Lancaster county until after her marriage, when she moved to Sterling, Illinois, and remained there until she came to Santa Ana, which was her home to the time of her death, Nov. 3, 1910.

"He giveth His beloved sleep," so, like unto a child that, wearied by the long day leans its head upon its mother's breast, and thus sinks into dreamless slumber, this child of God fell softly and sweetly into that "blessed sleep from which none ever wakes to weep."

This good Christian woman will be missed from the church where she worshipped and the community in which she lived. Quiet and unostentatious in her ways, her feet were set in the paths of gentleness. Until failing health prevented she was constant in her attendance upon religious services and an earnest member of the missionary society of her church.

Mrs. Witmer was a good neighbor and friend, always pleasant and cheerful, thoughtful of others and forgetful of self.

Neither sorrow nor affliction was able to disturb the calm serenity of her disposition, and her words and conduct seemed to exemplify the scriptural injunction, "Whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things," for if one were criticised in her presence Mrs. Witmer invariably followed the remark by some commendatory word about the person criticised.

"There is no death, that which we call so is transition."

"In my Father's home are many mansions," and we love to think of her there, reunited with those dear ones who so shortly preceded her thither; those whom "she loved and lost" for such a little while.

A FRIEND.

NO DYSPEPSIA OR HEARTBURN

Indigestion Goes and Your Stomach Feels Fine in Five Minutes

—You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion, or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.

TUSTIN SOCIAL

Sale and Supper

On the 8th of December the members of the Tustin Ladies' Aid Society will hold a bazaar and serve a chicken pie supper in the Tustin Hotel dining room as in former years.

The reputation of these sales and suppers is known far and wide and everyone should take advantage of this chance of buying dainty things for Christmas gifts and of getting an excellent supper.

Another Open Meeting

As everyone present at the Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge had such an enjoyable time last Thursday night, the members have decided to have another open meeting and entertainment next Thursday night. This will be good news to all who attended the last open meeting and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to be present at this entertainment.

Entertained Club Members

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman entertained the members of the Bide-A-Wee Club Thursday evening with an oyster supper. The table decorations were of lovely chrysanthemums and the place cards were dainty and appropriate to the occasion. Covers were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames H. Roy Smith, Cood Adams, Arthur

Lott, D. D. Adams, Lu Allen and Byron Johnson.

Sewing Club

The members of the Richardson Art Embroidery Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. House and spent a delightful time in sewing on dainty fancy work.

Those present were Mesdames McCarrall, Peacock, Mann, Collar, Lawrence, Lambert, Golder, Hardcastle, Day, Ed Smith, Wollenberg and Miss Lena Wollenberg. The members decided to hold the next meeting with Mrs. McCarrall.

Ebell Literature Section

The members of the Tustin Literature Section of the Ebell will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Burris.

Meeting Next Thursday

The members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Tustin Presbyterian church will meet next Thursday, Nov. 17 at 2:30 o'clock at the church. The subject will be "Korea." The district all day meeting will be held next Tuesday, Nov. 15, in the Presbyterian church at Orange.

Boy's Surprise Party

Last Saturday afternoon a crowd of merry school children trooped to the Blackmore residence on Prospect avenue intent on surprising their playmate, Blaine Gale. They arrived at just the right moment and then the fun began and it was genuine fun until the last, too. Every game to be thought of was played and the right to roam over the big, roomy house and yard was given to them all.

Those present were Janie Jones, Addie Trickey, Blanche Myers, Blanche Smith, Marion Smith, Louise Bernelke, Jennie Pollard and Horace Shaffer, Paul Graves, Elwood Graves, George Mathews, Myron Halderman, Dewey Rhodes, Haydn Squires and of course the young host and his sister Irene.

After the last race was run and the last game was played, they were called to partake of abundant refreshments. Most everything good was there, waiting for hungry little mouths to enjoy. They all went home declaring their afternoon was the "best ever" spent.

Tustin Receives Banner

Thursday night after the Sunday School parade disbanded and the women were all seated in the church, everyone was surprised and the Tustin ladies were pleased and excited by the knowledge that their class had received a banner. The ladies are member of the Berean Bible class and the banner was given them for the largest percentage of their enrolled members in line. The banner is a beautiful silk one which the ladies are very proud of.

The class has not been organized very long and they all have worked very hard to make an excellent showing in the parade. To say they were surprised when called upon to step up and receive their prize, is putting it mildly.

Easterly Buys Ranch

This week Mr. Annis of Minnesota purchased a ten-acre orange and apricot ranch on Prospect avenue of Mr. Sparfield. The new owner will move into his new home as soon as he can. He has made Santa Ana his stopping place for some months, having spent last winter there.

Mr. Sparfield and wife have not fully decided their plans for the future. They have lived on the ranch for several years, building a fine home there, and otherwise thoroughly improved the place, and the new owner will find everything in excellent condition.

Lemon Pool Results

The results of the September pool has been issued by the Tustin Lemon Association and are 3.98 cents for first grade and 3.10 cents for second grade, or an average of 3.50 cents for both grades.

Services as Usual

The Sunday services will be held as usual at both churches by the pastors, Rev. Richardson of the Advent Christian and Rev. Kennedy of the Presbyterian.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms: of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gurgling sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening agent known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put out by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equalled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Lest You Forget

Here are a Few Vital Points to Remember Before You Buy any Automobile

REMEMBER: THE NAME—E-M-F "30."

REMEMBER: THE PRICE—$1,000 f.o.b. Detroit, fully equipped with magneto, five lamps, acetylene generator and tube horn.

REMEMBER: THE GUARANTEE—For one year against breakage "if found to be defective."

REMEMBER: THE RECORD—Over 18,000 E-M-F "30" cars today in hands of owners and every owner boasting—ask them.

REMEMBER: THE SAVING—E-M-F "30" at $1,000 saves you $500 as compared with the same size and power and quality others ask $1,500 for; and $250 from price of "assembled cars" that list at $1,250 and cannot sell for less because of having to pay the extra parts makers' profits.

REMEMBER: That $250 difference pays $20 per month toward your rent; or it is savings bank interest on $6,250, while $500 that you save on a car of equal quality is interest on $12,500 for a year.

REMEMBER: That the difference between price of E-M-F "30" and would-be competing cars at $1,250 will pay, twice over, your years' maintenance account—gasoline, oil, tires, repairs and an annual overhauling.

REMEMBER: That no other thirty or thirty-five horsepower car is made of such excellent materials, and is, therefore as light, therefore as economical in operation and maintenance.

REMEMBER: That the E-M-F Company has over $7,000,000 invested in plants and that, not only is every part from the Pig Iron and the Raw Steel bars made in our own factories, but that every pound of steel or brass or other metal that enters into these cars is first made from our own formula, then analyzed to prove its quality, and finally tested to prove its efficiency.

REMEMBER: That cars for which you must pay more are "assembled" product—that while their makers may prate loudly about quality they don't know what material actually goes into their cars, but must take the word of others who are making the parts for profit and who have no interest in the ultimate user of the car.

AND FINALLY REMEMBER the record of the E-M-F Company—never repudiated a guarantee or a promise, written, verbal or otherwise. Remember that when we guarantee our cars for a full year we know whereof we speak, for we have made every part and we know absolutely the strength and quality of every piece of steel in it. Remember that we are the largest automobile manufacturers in the world—that we now have thousands of delighted owners recommending our product and that, in view of our tremendous output, we need a lot more of such friends. Remember that we have always said "a satisfied owner is the best salesman"—and that we have always kept that in mind and seen that every owner was satisfied.

THE GOOD WORK ONLY BE-GUN

The good work of political and civic regeneration in California is well begun, but it is only begun. In the results of last Tuesday's election we have a splendid political asset, a large civic investment; but if we are to make it pay the largest possible dividends in the form of good government, if we are to enjoy the full fruition of the seeds of good citizenship an public consciousness we have sown, we must increase our investment with liberal hand and loyal heart, cultivate and guard our field with devotion and sacrifice.

Much may be expected and depended upon from Governor Johnson and Lieutenant-Governor Wallace and their cabinet of Progressive Republicans, but without the active and efficient support of the progressive press and progressive citizenship of the state they must fail of the largest and highest achievement. Moreover, strong support is their just due at our hands. We urged them to lead us in this fight. We have supported them thus far in a manner to inspire their confidence in our loyalty and efficiency. For us to grow lukewarm or indifferent now would be to shirk a grave responsibility and miss a grand opportunity.

HERE'S ANOTHER CALIFORNIA WONDER

In a recently published interview, Prof. G. C. Husman, pomologist for the Department of Agriculture, made a number of interesting statements regarding the commanding position occupied by California in the matter of grape culture. This state now produces 75 per cent of the grape crop of the United States and because of the fact and because of the wide variations of its soil and climate, it receives by far the largest share of the government appropriations devoted to this industry. Not only that but in certain sections the soil and climate are suitable for more kinds of plants than may be found in any other one section of the country. For instance, there are 650 varieties of grapes flourishing in the experimental vineyard at Napa. It would be necessary for the government to plant experimental vineyards in thirteen different states to secure anything like the results obtained in this one location in California. As an example of the wonders of the experimental station at Napa, while the state Grange was meeting there a few weeks since, an exhibit of 123 varieties of grapes, each having a distinct commercial importance, was gathered from its vines in a few hours. That number could easily have been increased to 250, and many sections of the collection would then have been left untouched. This is but one instance of the wonderful possibilities of California climate and soil, and it is encouraging to note how those possibilities are coming to be recognized.

CALIFORNIA WILL SHINE

One wise old politician of rather more than local fame consoled himself and a bunch of his cronies yesterday with the following moralizations over conditions on the other side of the Rockies: "Well, boys, we know it's always tough to have a Democratic congress but I guess Taft and the senate can hold them down. Then we must remember that California is one of the few states faithful to the old party and I guess Uncle Billy Taft will sit up and notice a little when he hears about our solid delegation. I guess he will feel like the Pacific Coast must be about right after all and that should bring a number of things our way during the next two years. I tell you California is more right than ever and you will see that we stand among the first in Washington from this time on."

When General Grosvenor of Ohio, disrespectfully dubbed "Old Figures" because of his fondness for attempting to forecast all political contests, came out with his prediction of a genuine Democratic landslide a short time since, there was a general laugh by the wise in both parties. We regret the necessity of recording another victory for this statistical prophet and the complete discomfiture of the scoffers. It may be that his next arithmetical bulletin will be received with greater respect.

ONE MINUTE SERMONS

(By the Old Man in Fullerton News)
Life is like a great river and the human beings are like the little chips that float on the surface. One floating bit hardly knows where it is going. Frequently the chips bump up against one another and perhaps cling and go along a little further, until something away down the stream separates them. But human beings are different in that they have a thinking apparatus. They are suspecting one another continually and oftentimes when one person would give a right arm for another, the other does not know it, or does not realize it, and there is not strength of will enough to stick. One whose hours are different, or whose dwelling place has different surroundings, or whose occupation gives different impressions, perhaps is unable to appreciate the difficulties of another human being. Perhaps all the heartaches, the silent communions, the wounds of the soul, and the hopes and expectations are not apparent to another. That is why there are so many misunderstandings and so many misconstructions and suspicions. It is very easy to imagine that another person is not walking the straight and narrow path, if one does not take into consideration the difference in occupation, hours, tastes and environment. Sometimes suspicion is exceedingly cruel to the victim, cutting like a knife. Oftentimes a man loses all that he considers worth while in this world through the unjust thought of another. Mankind has not yet grown to that point of refinement when he can brush aside the disturbing things that make him unhappy. Cordiality and response and enthusiasm do not come perhaps when they are most needed.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Coal now has been acknowledged by the Department of Agriculture and the Geological Survey as chief fuel of the United States and fire-wood has been placed in the background. According to a bulletin issued by Chief Forester Henry S. Graves, the census of 1880 estimated that at that time nearly 146 million cords of wood was used for fuel annually. The estimated value of this wood was approximately $322,000,000. The population of the United States was at that time 50 million. Since then, however, the population of the United States has reached about 90 million, but the use of wood as fuel has decreased in total quantity. Coal, however, is used much more extensively.

The Geological Survey announced that in 1880 the total production of coal was 71,481,570 short tons, while in 1908 it amounted to 415,842,698 short tons, or nearly six times the amount of 1880.

The quantity of fire-wood used on farms varies greatly between different parts of the country on account of a number of influences, such as climate, the distance from coal fields, the development of transportation facilities and the progressiveness of the consumers.

Except in the Pacific coast states and in Arkansas, Louisiana and Missouri, the consumption of wood on the farm, west of the Mississippi river is comparatively small. The states north of the Ohio river use less fire-wood per farm than those south of it. Though this may seem strange because the climate north of the river is cooler, it is explained largely by the fact that in the north stoves burning coal are commonly used, while in the South, open wood fireplaces are more general. Not only is relatively little coal used in the South, but fireplaces require large quantities of wood for the amount of heat produced.

In the New England states and in the south Atlantic states rather more wood is used than in the middle Atlantic states, which are within a short distance of coal fields and which have good transportation facilities.

Twenty-six states reported an annual consumption of more than 1,000,000 cords each, while six of these states reported more than 4,000,000 cords each. The total quantity of wood used for fuel in Michigan, Texas, New York, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri, and Minnesota, the leading states in point of value, exceeded $85,000,000. This is more than one-third of the value of all firewood used in the United States.

The highest average value in any state was in North Dakota, which was closely followed by Nevada, while the lowest values were found in Georgia and Alabama.

American merchants are "overlooking a great opportunity" in not going after the trade of the cities along the great Amazon river, according to John M. Turner, commercial agent of the United States, who in a lengthy communication to the Department of Commerce and Labor, says in part: "A casual investigation in Para will convince any business man that the manufacturers and exporters in the United States are missing great trade opportunities here.

"The whole Amazon river country has to buy every article used by the people working or living in the section, and the region comprises many thousands of miles of navigable water. Para is the great distributing point, although much of the material for the up-river THRAINU S 01918 for up-river points is ordered for direct shipment from point of embarkation to destination, large steamers running direct from Liverpool, New York, and other points several thousand miles up the Amazon and its tributaries.

"Every imaginable article of commerce is required. The cost at destination cuts very little figure so long as the article is what is wanted and gets there within reasonable time. Many of the up-river firms maintain offices in Para, and business can be conducted quite satisfactorily in that city. There are banking facilities, and while not so complete as some might require, there is rarely any difficulty in selling or buying the exchange required.

"Dry goods and hardware, machinery of various kinds, and many staples can be carried in stock in Para without much danger, other than of rusting in the damp climate. One sees dry-goods from Europe, particularly England and Portugal, and supplies of all kinds that could as well have been supplied from the United States. There is apparently no prejudice against the United States. In fact it might have a slight preference, other things being equal."

—Mrs. Finlay M. Hotchkiss, graduate New England Conservatory, Boston, teacher of voice, Studio 612 French, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

UNITED STATES TO PROBE S. P. OIL LAND CLAIMS

Los Angeles Examiner: On the eve of the big meeting of oil men in Bakersfield today, there came from Washington yesterday the announcement that Attorney General Wickersham has begun an inquiry into the right of the Southern Pacific Company to 6000 acres of its oil lands in California. The inquiry, ordered by President Taft, will be directed towards the question of whether these lands were known to contain oil when patented as agricultural lands, and if that fact is established suit to recover them will be instituted.

The same proposition provides for a state supreme court with three justices.

It is an absolute fact that the new Reo truck will run every day in the year in every country in the world; that they will be durable and efficient and will be noted, as all Reo cars are noted, for their dependable service at the lowest possible cost of maintenance. Another point is that the best of material will enter in the construction of the Reo motor trucks and that they will, like the Reo pleasure vehicles, be the standard for big automobile value. Altar Society Meeting

A meeting of this auxiliary society of St. Joseph's Catholic church, was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sam Murphy, 902 Flower street. Lovely chrysanthemums, roses and scarlet geraniums were used in the decorations of the rooms. After a gratifying social hour had passed, Mrs. Murphy regaled her guests with sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee, the latter served in fragile china cups that were two hundred years old and sent her from Vienna.

A Presentation

One of the many pleasant things that enliven lodge life was experienced last Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the Elks, when that benevolent organization of good fellows was presented with two pairs of handsome antlers, trophies of the hunting skill of W. L. Grubb. Mr. Grubb made the gift all the more acceptable by his whole-souled speech made as he presented the antlers. The spokesman of the lodge in accepting the gift and expressing appreciation of Mr. Grubb's generosity, was Dr. Dobson.

The antlers were turned over to Parke Roper, who will see that they are properly mounted and polished and placed for "future reference" over the fireplace in one of the parlors of the splendid club house the Elks are now building. As the jolly Elks sit about the glowing embers in the spacious fireplace, and gaze upon the antlers above it, they will often be reminded of their brother's pleasant thought in adding the beautiful trophies to their lares et penates.

Ebel Music Section

The monthly meeting of the Ebel Music Section will be held the coming Monday, Nov. 14, at 2:30 p.m. The subject will be Gounod, with Mrs. Rafferty, Mrs. Dean and Miss Witt, the program committee, in charge. During the absence of the curator, Mrs. Hull, all meetings of this section will be at the home of Miss Medlock, 806 North Main street.

New Dramatic Departure

Santa Ana is standing on the threshold of a new dramatic era. Alongside of her advancement in other ways is likely to be a development in the dramatic field that will be interesting to playgoers and play lovers. This is none other than a movement for a definite amusement supply other than that furnished by the moving picture shows and the traveling companies at the Grand Opera House. Both of these have their legitimate sphere and will continue to have their constituency. But Santa Ana should have, and is promised if sufficient interest is shown, a series of modern plays of undisputed excellence put on at regular intervals by a competent stock company. Just such an undertaking is now being promoted by Ernest Crozier Phillips. He will open the season with the well known, sterling, vivacious play, "Her Own Way," written by that master playwright, Clyde Fitch, for Maxine Elliott.

This is an ambitious undertaking, and Mr. Phillips will be placed under serious expense, having to pay a heavy royalty for each production of "Her Own Way," which is a copyrighted play. On the financial support given him and his company will depend the outcome of his ambitious purpose to give Santa Ana the best there is in dramatic offerings. The outlook at the present moment is encouraging, as Mr. Phillips is receiving hearty words of commendation, and indications are many for an enthusiastic patronage of the two productions of "Her Own Way," Thursday and Friday nights, Nov. 17 and 18.

Pepito Arriola May Come Here

A movement is on foot to secure Pepito Arriola, the twelve-year-old boy pianist, in a concert for Santa Ana next week. Music lovers would be delighted to hear this musical prodigy, who has appeared before the crowned heads of Europe in successful concerts, and who is one of the world's musical geniuses of the day. More definite information may be available the first of the week.

THE HOEGEES WILL PLAY BALL AT HAWLEY'S PARK

Tomorrow afternoon the loyal baseball fans of Santa Ana will have a chance to see one of the hottest diamond struggles ever witnessed in Santa Ana. The opposing clubs will be the Hoegees of Los Angeles and the Santa Ana boys.

These two clubs have played two games, both being won by Santa Ana, the first by a score of 6 to 2, and the other went eleven innings, the locals winning 3 to 2.

Dubois has been pitching good ball and should put up a great game tomorrow.

The batting of Stephens has been another feature of games in the past, so come and give the boys a real send off. Game called at 2:30.

Dissolution Notice

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

HARD FIGHT IS ON TODAY

Santa Ana and Pasadena
High School Teams Are Playing

Pasadena High School and Santa Ana High are now wrestling with the pigskin at the Lincoln street park. The game is of unusual interest to followers of the local team as it is the first game of the season on the home grounds, and because of the standing it will give the winner in the race for the interscholastic championship.

The second team game, which was to have been played previous to the big game, was called off late last night by the Pasadena manager stating that he would be unable to get his team together. This was a disappointment, as only yesterday a letter was received from Pasadena announcing that the team would be on hand promptly, and accordingly special arrangements were made by the local management for the game. However, the Anaheim team has been substituted, so two games will be played.

The first team went into the game fully determined to wipe out the defeat administered by Pasadena last year. Enthusiasm, though not overconfidence, prevails among the team and rooters in abundance, which will go a long way toward winning the game.

The team lines up: W. Reeves, L.E.; Catland, L.T.; Davies, L.G.; W. Warren, C.; Grouard, R.G.; Peek, R.T.; Wotton, R.E.; Lutz, F.

This line up may be changed at any moment before the game is over. Competition for end positions is very strong, and it is certain that Lantz and Tedford will have a try-out before the game is done. Wotton may be changed from end to half, Menges either retiring from the game or taking a line position.

Prof. Culp of Anaheim is refereeing, returning the favor done by Coach Ratcliffe and Captain Reeves in officiating last evening at the game between Anaheim and Orange at Orange. Coach Ratcliffe has worked hard with the Santa Ana team and has done wonders with it.

Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works— 25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Molière and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstol, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thustrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Oppen. The binding is in rich red rep-silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 1/4 inches.

If I keep the books, I will remit $25.00 a month until the full price, $25.00, has been paid, or, within thirty days, $25.75 as payment in full.

SEEKS ARREST OF HUSBAND

Mrs. Walter York Has Sworn to a Complaint Charging
Eloper With Desertion

Sheriff Lacy has sent out descriptions of a couple who eloped from Olinda about ten days ago. Walter York was the man and Mrs. Paul Ortega the woman. Mrs. York has sworn to a complaint charging York with deserting his family, leaving them in destitute circumstances.

The Fullerton Tribune tells of the elopement thus:

Quite a sensation was sprung in the usually quiet locality of Brea Canyon Wednesday when it became known that Walter York, a driller in the employ of the Fullerton Oil Company, and Mrs. Paul Ortega, wife of a teamster working for the same company, had disappeared the night before. The absent man left a wife and the woman left a husband behind. The two families were neighbors and the members bore good reputations, hence the sensation occasioned by the man and woman leaving at the same time, and presumably together. Rumors concerning them were plentiful in the oil region, one of these being in effect that York had drawn from a local bank the several hundred dollars he had deposited just before they left. Another of the reports was that the pair had gone north and that they were located in Cat canyon, near Santa Maria, but inquiry failed to confirm these rumors.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Where are eggs going? That is the question. It has been a perturbing influence in the minds of the commission men, has kept the retail merchant busy explaining every day of the six days of the week and is giving the consumer a very wholesome regard for the egg as a delicacy. The price on case count, or the jobbing quotation on farm eggs, just as they come from the ranch without grading, was up to 50 cents on a number of sales reported. The quotation as fixed by the egg committee is 48 cents on case count and 52 cents on candled stock. In San Francisco they are paying up to 57 cents with 55 cents the accredited basis of all egg trading for yesterday. The upward trend seems to have no limit and unless the hens of California get very busy, the average family will forget what a fresh ranch egg tastes like. Eastern extra select stock was quoted at 38 cents and average storage sold at 32. Seconds, the kind that bakers use and cheap restaurants for making cakes and similar things are selling at 27 cents. Arrivals yesterday were just 71 cases.

Butter receipts were 12,212 pounds. The demand was not over large and prices were unchanged in all grades. Second-class stock is moving better than the best creamery. Storage butter is beginning to move freely.

There were few offerings and sales in the cheese market. The demand for cheese was limited to one eastern and northern fresh. Receipts of cheese were 1521 pounds.

Lompoc and Salinas potatoes are again beginning to invade the market. The thrill of the Highland is overcome for a time at least and spuds from all parts of the state,

Tiger, S. B. Colton ..... 3.70
Floral, S. B. Colton ..... 2.75
Pointier, A. C. G. Ex. .... 4.25

Golden Eagle, sd, Chapman ..... 5.15
Lade Rowena, Chapman ..... 3.90 and also from outside, will begin arriving on Monday. Salinas and Lompoc spuds are quoted at $2. Receipts yesterday were 2430 sacks.

The onion market also showed very active conditions. Oregon, Nevada and Lompoc onions, some to arrive within a week, some already on their way and others for more distant delivery, were offered and sold. Nevada onions hold the highest mark in quotations, $1.70 being asked in a jobbing way. Others average $1.50.

Further declines in pink beans were reported. They are held at $5.25 per hundred now. Other beans are merely steady. The sweet potato market is steady. Receipts of the commodity were 279 sacks.

Arrivals of apples were 1800 boxes. The market on bellefours steadied up well. Other apples moved freely.

In the fish market there were no surprises. Halibut were plentiful for the first time in several weeks. Barracuda and yellowtail were the other large fish obtainable.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IS ENDED

enthusiasm. The new president, Rev. Chas. H. Seecombe, introduced Rev. G. M. Anderson of Riverside, who spoke of the Home Department in the Sunday School. He said:

"The Home Department is the Sunday school delivery wagon. He who thinks he cannot come, when he can, needs to have his spinal column osteopathed until the red blood leaps in his veins and he comes to Sunday school."

F. W. Emerson urged the Southern California Association to co-operate with the Northern California Association in making the meeting of the International Association at San Francisco next June a great success. Mr. Seecombe, the newly elected president, spoke a few appropriate words of appreciation of the work before him the ensuing year, and bespoke the co-operation of all in this interdenominational Sunday school work.

Rev. A. V. Kimmell of Los Angeles conducted the open parliament on the Adult Bible Class movement. Dr. Matt S. Hughes was scheduled to speak next, but he could not be present, so Dr. H. H. Bell of San Francisco, consented to take his place and also his subject, "Hand Picked Fruit." He said in part:

"Hand picked fruit is the best. The elements necessary to get hand-picked souls are special piety, personal work and personal patience. It is well sometimes to let the soul unload itself. Christ is the model soul-winner. He did not try to explain regeneration, but stated it as a fact, 'Ye must be born again.'"

The speaker illustrated his discourse with personal experiences which held every listener spell-bound.

Secretary Gibson called the attention of all to the county maps on the walls representing the advancement the past year in organized work. A beautiful banner was awarded to the county making the greatest advancement, and Orange county won the banner, which was presented to the county secretary, Mrs. O. S. Catland. The Orange county president, Mr. Moore, in a few well chosen words, presented the retiring general secretary, Mr. Hugh C. Gibson, with a bouquet of great white chrysanthemums and a life membership in the Southern California Association, in behalf of the Orange County Association. Mr. Gibson responded with feeling and paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. Catland for her work as county secretary, and also in this convention.

Secretary Marion Lawrance was the last speaker of the afternoon and his subject was, "The Sunday School Teacher as a Shepherd." He spoke of the life of the shepherd and his sheep as he himself had seen it in Palestine, and made the following comparisons, illustrating his talk with verses of scripture, stories to the point, and gems of poetry:

1. The shepherd knows his sheep and they know his voice. The teacher should know his pupils, their homes, and their peculiarities.

2. The shepherd leads his sheep. The teacher should lead his pupils into right habits of study, of living, of giving and of prayer.

3. The shepherd feeds his sheep. He gives them the right kind of food at the right time and he feeds them regularly. The teacher should feed his pupils with the great truths. Put first things first. Don't serve dried tongue; give their food to them regularly and let them do the chewing!

4. The shepherd protects his sheep. Teachers should protect their pupils from false doctrine, from the temptations of the world, from evil books and evil works.

5. The shepherd seeks his sheep and finds them. The teacher should seek new pupils, absent ones and lost ones.

6. The shepherd loves his sheep. The teacher should love and sympathize, and show his love by patience.

7. The shepherd dies for his sheep. The teacher should put his life into his work.

This closed the address of one of the greatest orators in this great work, Marion Lawrance being unexcelled in his use of language, beautiful imagery, and magnetic inspiration. His work alone has been of priceless benefit to the Southern California workers, and all can say as did Secretary Gibson at the close of the session, "I am glad we came to Santa Ana." Indeed, this seems to be the prevailing sentiment among the entire delegation. All are agreed that this has been the biggest and best Sunday school convention ever held in Southern California, and Santa Ana once again has made good her reputation for hospitality and ability to do whatever she undertakes.

The automobile ride for the delegates started from registration church at 9 o'clock this morning for a spin through the beautiful Santa Ana valley.

Orange county won the banner for the greatest advancement in organized work the past year.

Friday Night Session

At 7 o'clock the big auditorium of the First Methodist church was crowded for the closing session of the "coming of age" convention of the Southern California Sunday School Association. Very many of the 1000 visitors who have been in the city the past few days had gone home, but interest had not waned.

Prof. B. P. Stout conducted an inspiring song service in his pleasing and characteristic fashion. No one could refrain from singing when he walked across the platform, swung his arms, planted his foot down and said: "Sing."

Every person was anticipating the entrance of the graduating class, with an interest equal to that at a high school commencement. Several pews, roped off in white and yellow, had been reserved for the honorees.

To the inspiring music and words of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," the class of forty graduates of the teacher training class, passed by the newly elected president of the state association, Rev. Chas. H. Seecombe and the superintendent of teacher training, R. W. Emerson of Long Beach, came down the aisle and were seated. This class is made up of students in teacher training courses from the various schools of the association.

Prof. Stout's solo of the evening was "Procrastination," a true story in song, and as the last sound of his melodious voice died away there was an impressive stillness, followed by prayer voiced by Rev. Seecombe.

The recognition and presentation of the class was made in a few well chosen remarks by Mr. Emerson and an address by Rev. Crabtree of San Diego. The latter speaker exalted the calling of the Sunday school teacher to that of equality with the pastor or ordained preacher. The authority of both is from above—not from man. The teacher called is in tutored if not apostolic succession. The teachers in the Sunday school should be in attitude toward the pupils as was the peerless Christ in his attitude toward men and women with whom he associated.

"Teachers, here and now your work seems scattering, but over yonder when it shall stand out in bold relief, you shall see and know something of what you have done with the preparation for service you have had here," said the speaker.

Hugh C. Gibson this year has decided to leave the office of secretary of this association, and he was, because of this, feelingly introduced by the chairman of the evening, as the one to receive the class and present diplomas. Secretary Gibson stated this was the largest class ever presented by the association. In the course of Mr. Gibson's remarks he stated Ohio had sent out the statement that in a few years all Ohio's Sunday school teachers were to be trained teachers. Amid the clapping of hands the various members accepted from Mr. Gibson their diplomas.

The vote of thanks and appreciation extended by the delegation to the city of Santa Ana and all who have contributed to the comfort and convenience of the delegates, was most hearty.

The speaker and the address of the evening was by Marion Lawrance, whose personality and wisdom have been so strongly felt during the sessions of the convention. The Chau-tauqua salute was given him as he came to the platform, and by a few bright and amusing personal remarks he immediately won the attention of his audience. By way of beginning, Mr. Lawrance said:

"A teacher training diploma would not make a good teacher of everybody, but a diploma would make a better teacher of anybody. This convention has cost dollars and dollars in railroad fare, time and money of busy men and women. What will come of it all?"

"This has been a machine shop, a coaling station, securing power for service. This is planting and sowing time. We are going home to the harvest."

"The definition of a good delegate is one who gets all he can but does not can all he can get. You can't report this address in full, but your people in your county ought to know what you heard in Santa Ana. Plan your next convention in line with what you have gotten here—for this has been a great convention, and I have attended enough to be a judge."

"If you as delegates go home from this convention with nothing your friends have a right to say to you, it's a shame you didn't take something along to get it in."

"If you make tracks toward the home for the baby in your cradle roll, you have made a pretty good path for pupils back to your Sunday School. A mill doesn't last long if it isn't grinding out a grist. A Sunday school doesn't live long if it doesn't turn out the right kind of lives. Every church member ought to be in the Sunday school. Get the missionary vision in your Sunday school. A live Sunday school can't live within four walls."

"In this inventory you take here tonight forget the faces here, but get the vision of the Master. Forget the richness of the courts you have been in, the things surrounding you here, and think only of the Christ and His work. The promises of the Bible are not to the successful, but to the faithful."

The closing time allotted to Mr. Lawrance was used in a consecration service by pastors, superintendents, teachers and workers. Nearly the whole audience rose in allegiance to their Sunday school work, and then in prayer led by Hugh Gibson, the consecration service closed. With a solo by Prof. Stout, the splendid 1910 Sunday School convention was at an end.
